

John R. Luker, CPA, Vice President of Finance & Compliance

For 9 years, John Luker has been employed by the Orange County Rescue Mission, a non-profit organization serving the Least, the Last and the Lost of Orange County. In this role, John oversees all of the financial affairs of the ministry to comply with state, federal, IRS and ECFA laws and regulations.

Some of the major duties performed in this position are the annual budget, monthly financial statements by department compared to the budget, coordination of all accounts receivable and accounts payable functions, contract billings and the coordination of several audits from outside auditing firms.

In addition to these finance duties, John has overseen many of OCRM's expansion efforts. The largest of these was the construction of the Village of Hope. John managed the weekly construction meetings, solicited resources to help build and coordinated the cash available to pay vendors. Other projects John managed were Hope Family Housing Buena Park and the acquisition of Casa de Salud Health Clinic, which is now Hurtt Family Health Clinic at the Village of Hope.

Prior to John's employment at the Village of Hope he spent five years between Price Waterhouse Coopers and Deloitte & Touche as a manager in the audit division performing audits on large SEC clients. He also worked at CRI as Controller for 2 years, for Oneill Management Services in Gainesville, FL as a Senior Accountant for 3 years and UPS during his college years.

John was born and raised in Jacksonville, Florida and attended college at University of Florida in Gainesville, Florida. He is a very proud Gator follower. Today, John lives in San Juan Capistrano, CA with his daughter, Madison.

John is involved in several other organizations as a representative for OCRM or to provide financial expertise.
