

Serving them right

PHOTOS BY JEFFREY ANTENORE / FOR THE TUSTIN NEWS

Orange Lutheran High School seniors volunteered Friday to help get the Orange County Rescue Mission's Village of Hope open.

CHRIS ARDIS sweeps one of the roads leading into the Orange County Rescue Mission's Village of Hope on Friday as part of his school's annual "Serve Day."

JEFF HARRIS stacks bags of cement in an empty dumpster to help clean up what will become a homeless shelter on the former Tustin Marine Corps base.

SENIORS RYAN DALLOWAY, left, and Shelby Powell-Hicks sand stairway railings at the Orange County Rescue Mission's Village of Hope on Friday.

VILLAGE OF HOPE RESCUE MISSION DIRECTOR JEFF HOLLETT speaks to seniors from Orange Lutheran High School, welcoming them on their "Serve Day."

ORANGE LUTHERAN HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS Allie Huddleston, Emily Jonas, Brittany Rudi and Jillian Jordan sweep one of the outside hallways at the Village of Hope Rescue Mission on the former Tustin base on Friday morning.