SHADY CANYON CACHET

The fashionable Shady Canyon set was out in force for a cocktail party and viewing of fabulous Michael Beaudry jewelry at the stunning home of Jo and Robin McMonigle. The evening was a great success, especially because the support guests gave the new Village of Hope, one of the most innovative facilities to help homeless families in the country. Nearing completion on the former Tustin air base, the five-acre O.C. Rescue Mission site includes former barracks and new buildings, and will provide family counseling, medical and dental care and job training during stays of up to two years. The program encourage self-sufficiency is also one of the only places that keeps homeless families together. Now that's a reason to celebrate! —KEDRIC FRANCIS
